Aligned with Armed Forces Day, Living History Day (May 20th) is a festival of living, breathing history, celebrating Oregon's rich legacy of military service. Visitors are invited to walk through OMM's Historic Park, free of charge, to engage with and hear, see, and maybe even touch a piece of Oregon's military legacy.

History comes alive through reenactments, demonstrations, educational activities, interactive experiences, and dynamic displays offered by present-day military units, heritage organizations, and historical reenactors. Live entertainment and hopefully a food cart will round out the day's festivities.

There is no fee to participate in Living History Day, but you will need to reserve your spot by completing the online Participant's Entry Form (oregonmilitarymuseum.org/LHD2023) before April 20. Besides tabling materials, you are welcome and encouraged to bring pop-up displays and touchable objects, takeaways for visitors, an activity or interactive, or bring along a vehicle or other equipment representative of your unit or organization. Have other ideas? Please include them in your entry form! If you have any questions, please email Katrina O'Brien at katrina@oregonmilitarymuseum.org. We hope you will be a part of OMM's Living History Day and help make it a day to remember.
