JUL 12: Grand Re-Opening of the Oregon Military Museum, including our premiere We Are Oregon exhibit in the Drill Floor Gallery, the first of our rotating exhibits in the Temporary Gallery, History in Art: Selections from the OMM Collection, and a curated selection of firearms in the Weapons Gallery, along with the opening of the Hall of Valor and Thomas E. Withycombe Library.

EVENTS

APR 19: Explore the impact of the Pacific Northwest and its people, both abroad and stateside, with WWII vehicles, stories, photos, uniforms, equipment, weapons, and more.

MAY 10: Historian Sig Unander dives into the story of local actress turned WWII spy and POW savior, Claire Phillips and the world of fake identities, espionage, revenge, and resistance.

JUN 21: Oregon's history and military legacy, past to present, come alive through dynamic displays, reenactments, interactive activities, and living histories throughout the Historic Park.

JUL 19: For tank fans of all ages. Check out the pop-up canopy display beside the outdoor tracked vehicles, talk to veteran tankers, grab a tank sticker, and celebrate all things tank-related.

AUG 16: In collaboration with the Oregon National Guard Child & Youth Program, we invite you to join us for lawn games, arts and crafts, scavenger hunts, and a challenge course.

SEP 20: Step into the lived experiences of Civil War Union soldiers, from the tools to the tents they used, with the help of local living historians through fun interactives and demonstrations.

SERIAL PROGRAMS

From novice to expert, all are welcome to be part of the discussion—bring your insights or questions.

Veterans and active service members are invited to share their stories, reminisce, and mingle.

The exhibit galleries are reserved on 2nd Thursdays for visitors to find a quiet space to create or meditate.
